A few words from Fr Joe.....

This mid Lenten week is full of celebrations, Mother's Day, St Patrick's Day and the feast of St Joseph to begin with. Each of these days gives us a reason to have gratitude, thank God and count our blessings. Our mothers, here with us, deserve our deepest love and affection every day, but on this one occasion there is a collective expression of joyful praise for all that they mean to us. The cards, chocolates, flowers and treats are important, but it's what they convey that really matters, admiration, appreciation, gratitude, pride, wonder and indebtedness to start with! All of this joy on the surface, seen through the prism of faith, remind us that mothers are a channel of God's love in it's deepest mystery. The mothers who stick by their children through thick and thin, forgiving our erring ways and always seeing the best in us, who nurture our gifts and talents, believing in who we are and what we do, that's a God given gift that makes such a difference in life.

I go to Our Lady's Altar every Mother's Day to light a candle for Julie, my mother, who I believe to be in heaven. When I see the flickering flame on the votive candle I give thanks for her role as a guiding light in the lives of each of her 7 children, and thank God for her life on earth and the faith that unites her with us still. I often hear my siblings say, when something really good happens in the course of daily life, 'Ah that's Julie looking after me'. I imagine they say something similar if they get out of a tight spot too! The role that every mother takes on of 'looking after her children' is lived uniquely by each one as they meet the challenge of brining life into the world and protecting their off spring every step of the way. We give thanks to God today for their part in our lives, well done Mum!

Mother's Day Blessing

Almighty God, we ask Your blessing on each mother today. Fill their hearts with laughter and joy. Surround them with love from family and friends. Grant them health, peace, and fulfillment as they pursue their calling. Let them know their value and worth in Your eyes and ours. In Jesus' name, Amen.
